

As an Advanced Class Ameteur radio operator, callsign WA9ZPM, I hope that the power line transmission of data will be done in such a way that interference to amateur radio operation, on any allocated band, will be prevented. Also, the powerline data should be immune to interference from any amateur radio operation which is being done within legal parameters.